The Masters On the Dry Fly

An anthology of brilliantly written articles on fishing the dry fly from the world's masters of the sport of fly fishing. You've met them before, in the dozens of books and hundreds of magazine articles they have written, but here is some of the best work from the world's most renowned dry-fly experts, assembled in one classic volume.
With articles ranging from instruction in reading the water to tying better dry flies, and beautifully illustrated with photographs and Dave Whitlock's incomparable drawings, THE MASTERS ON THE DRY FLY will be a welcome addition to any angler's library.
