Alice Boner Diaries: India 1934-1967 Alice Boner & Georgette Boner
Apart from an insight into Alice Boner's keen observation of Indian Temple Architecture and art the present selection of her diary entries also depict the struggles of Alice Boner, the artist. Most of the diary entries are in German and English and these have been retained for the sake of the originality of her fine expression, interspersed with a selection of sketches from her vast repertoire. In addition, the German portions have been translated here for the benefit of English readers.
