Creative Colored Pencil Portraits (Creative Coloured Pencil) Vera Curnow
A beautiful and informative book that is small and easy to carry around. Each artist shows how they come up with their creative portraits. They show how they take images from several photos to create one unique work of their own. They show up close detail, so you can see how that particular technique looks up close. They give you a list of the colors they are using for the portrait in detail. For example, a list of colors used for the eyes, skin, hair, etc. the final works are beautiful and inspiring, especially Vera's. She did a piece based on her overcoming breast cancer. It's amazing.
