Polvere di Stelle (Italian Edition) Katia Pellegrinetti
Becky ed Elena sono unite da un’amicizia apparentemente indissolubile, fino al giorno in cui un terribile incidente metterà totalmente in discussione le loro vite. I loro percorsi, fino a quel momento molto simili, prenderanno due strade opposte: una, una volta ripresa dalla tragedia, si ritirerà in monastero, mentre l’altra si perderà sulle strade della droga, della prostituzione e della violenza. E’ proprio in questo contesto che si vede apparire la polvere di stelle o, più comunemente conosciuta come polvere bianca o cocaina. Tuttavia polvere di stelle non è solo la droga che spazza e distrugge tutto ciò che di buono è rimasto. Polvere di stelle è anche la polvere che ricopre, come una patina, i rapporti tormentati tra una madre e una figlia, la polvere a volte soffocante e a volte magica in un rapporto d’amore o di amicizia. Polvere di stelle è anche la morte, che porta via con se ciò che di caro avevamo, ma polvere di stelle è anche l’amore indissolubile e la vita che risorge. In questo romanzo si fondono insieme la lotta con Dio e la fede, l’amore omosessuale contro un amore ritenuto “normale”, la droga contro la speranza di un futuro migliore e, nonostante le mille difficoltà, la morte non avrà mai l’ultima parola. Polvere di stelle è stato edito nel 2010 da Cinquemarzo editore, una piccola casa editrice locale di Viareggio. Ritirato dal commercio nel 2012, per contratto scaduto, è stato acquistato nel 2014 da una casa editrice americana ed è uscito in seconda edizione l’8 Marzo 2015, in ebook. Il romanzo è uscito anche in lingua inglese in America, Canada e Gran Bretagna sotto il nome di “Stardust”.
