Love Down Under M. J. Williamz
Wylie Boase is the consummate womanizer. She's smart and charming and women love her, but she's never found anyone who makes her want to stick around. Until she goes to Broome, Australia. She feels an immediate attraction to Amarina, the woman who manages the hostel where Wylie's staying.
Things are great between them, except Amarina isn't out to her family and Wylie is terrified she's going to out her unintentionally. Wylie tries to explain to Amarina that she needs to leave before she does something to hurt her, but Amarina thinks she's just leaving to leave.

Life is hell without Amarina, so Wylie returns to Australia. Will Amarina take her back or is her heart too broken to recover?
