Eve: Redemption Rebecca Tinkle
This is not your mother’s creation story. The reincarnated Eve finds herself in present day New York working for a progressive corporation whose mission matches her own: restoring peace on the Earth. Eve soon discovers that the founder of the company, who she is desperately attracted to, is her old friend from the garden Lucas. Masquerading as human, Lucas confesses that he has come back to the Earth on a quest for redemption, to ultimately win her heart. Can she trust the most deplorable being in history when he pleads for forgiveness? She is torn between the hope that she can finally right the wrongs of her past and the fear of history repeating itself.
