Malvinas. La trama secreta (Edición definitiva) (Spanish Edition) VARIOS
Tres jóvenes periodistas del diario Clarín publicaron en 1983 un libro llamado a ser clave en más de un sentido. Por un lado, «Malvinas, la trama secreta» servía para entender qué había pasado realmente en esa guerra inaudita, cuyas heridas estaban aún en carne viva. Por otro, el libro fue fundamental por marcar un hito en el terreno de la más rigurosa investigación periodística. Y finalmente, «Malvinas# llegaba para dejar en claro todo lo que había cambiado en la Argentina en apenas un año: palabras que se amontonaban allí donde solo había silencio, revelaciones reemplazando al oscurantismo, libertad en lugar de represión.
Esta edición ampliada incorpora un importante número de documentos desclasificados reveladores del rol que asumieron las potencias mundiales en el conflicto: la U.R.S.S. apoyando a los militares argentinos y los Estados Unidos asumiendo sin medias tintas el papel de aliados de Gran Bretaña. De cualquier modo, estas nuevas pruebas no han cambiado la potencia ni la estructura original del relato. Como bien aclaran los autores: «Hemos sido, lo somos todavía, cronistas de la historia e investigadores periodísticos.
De esa compulsión y de ese contrato dimos nuestra versión de aquella guerra. En esta edición hemos hecho ajustes imprescindibles, de diferente magnitud, para que el texto pueda ser comprendido en el siglo XXI con una visión más vasta de la que teníamos en los últimos meses de la dictadura y en el umbral de la democracia, cuando amanecía la década de los 80».
