Follow Me West: The Legend Of Abraham: The Legend of Abraham H. Jacks
Every Christian knows the story of Abraham--a man called by God to serve, despite his weakness. We know about Abraham's wife, Sarah; their trip to Sodom and Gomorrah; Abraham's adultery with Hagar; and the birth of Isaac, son of Sarah and Abraham. But all of it seems so far away, and ancient biblical figures seem to have to little to do with our modern lives. How can we relate to someone in the distant past?

Follow Me West presents a work of historical fiction that transports the ancient Abraham to the American Wild West, where cowboys and Indians battle it out on the land surrounding Abraham and Sarah's ranch. Together they must face bandits, dangerous shootouts, and mysterious old towns. They must struggle to raise a child in the rugged western terrain with only their brains and brawn to save them.

Abraham was a simple man. The thing that made him special was his unending faith in a loving God. He was just like you and me, whether living in ancient Canaan or the Wild West. His story proves that despite robbers, thieves, and danger on the ranch, it is possible to succeed with a strong foundation built on the Lord.
