The General Zapped an Angel: New Stories of Fantasy and Science Fiction Howard Fast
"The General Zapped an Angel was written for fun, and offers me a chance to smile at the absurdity of human existence. Therefore, these stories of fantasy and science fiction are among the most serious writing I have done." —Howard Fast

Nearly forty years after the publication of his first story, "The Wrath of Purple," in the science fiction magazine Amazing Stories, Howard Fast returned to the genre with a set of nine supremely entertaining tales. In this collection, a Vietnam general shoots down what appears to be an angel, a man sells his soul to the devil for a copy of the next day's Wall Street Journal, and a group of alien beings bestow a mouse with human thought and emotion. Fast, one of the bestselling authors of the twentieth century, skewers war hawks, oil speculators, and profit-at-all-costs capitalism, issues that are still relevant today.

This ebook features an illustrated biography of Howard Fast including rare photos from the author's estate.

Marianne Stromain:

As a college student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The General Zapped an Angel: New Stories of Fantasy and Science Fiction can make you truly feel more interested to read.
