Bird and other monologues for young women (NHB Modern Plays) Laura Lomas

A cutting-edge monologue that throws light on the experience of a teenager in contemporary Britain, from one of the country's most exciting young playwrights.

It’s four in the morning and Leah is waiting for her boyfriend to call. Over the course of a single night she tells us what it’s like to be fourteen, fearless and full of love. But everything isn’t what it seems, and as the sun comes up, Leah begins to unpick the true nature of her relationship.

Bird was first presented by Root Theatre and Echo, on a tour of the UK, in 2014.

This edition also features two other hard-hitting and distinctive monologues for young female actors – Gypsy Girl and Where I’m From.
