The Alan Parsons Project Anthologie (French Edition) Christophe Carrafang
« Eye In The Sky », « Don’t Answer Me », « Silence And I », « Prime Time », « Old and Wise »… Ces magnifiques chansons à jamais gravées dans nos cœurs nous renvoient à une des formations musicales les moins connues du grand public : The Alan Parsons Project. De 1976 à 1987, dix remarquables concept-albums virent le jour, conçus par un collectif de talentueux musiciens et chanteurs, sous la houlette du binôme fondateur Alan Parsons / Eric Woolfson. Et en dépit des 45 millions d’exemplaires écoulés, peu de monde peut se targuer de connaître les noms de tous les formidables artistes qui participèrent à cette aventure. Alan Parsons évoquera bien sûr aux aficionados des Pink Floyd le nom du jeune et brillant ingénieur du son qui officia sur le mythique Dark Side of the Moon. Mais Eric Woolfson ? Que connaît-on de cet homme discret, malheureusement décédé en 2009, ce mélodiste de génie qui écrivit paroles et musiques de toutes les chansons du Project ? Il n’existe à ce jour quasiment aucune littérature sur The Alan Parsons Project. Cet ouvrage, fourmillant d’anecdotes, a pour ambition de combler ce vide et passera au crible l’intégralité de la discographie du « groupe », revenant sur la genèse du projet au milieu des années 70 et sur le parcours des fantastiques musiciens qui donnèrent naissance à cette matière musicale aussi dense que variée.
