Forgotten Stories of the Irish at War: Courage and Conflict Ian Kenneally

Dispossessed and oppressed for so long, it is no surprise that many Irish ended up fighting in other people's wars. For many, a career as a soldier was the last hope for a better life. Courage and Conflict is based around extraordinary people and events, revolutionaries, inventors, soldiers, sailors and mutineers. These stories provide a glimpse of Irish history intersecting with that of other peoples and countries.
