His Deception Patricia Rosemoor
In an explosive novel from the bestselling author of Dangerous—hailed by Virna DePaul as "smooth, sexy, and suspenseful"—deception and desire intertwine as an undercover bodyguard gets too close to the woman he's sworn to protect.

Tabloid drama isn't Katelyn Wade's style. The illegitimate daughter of a notorious tycoon, Katelyn has worked hard to build a successful business on her own terms. She doesn't put much stock in the rumors that she's being targeted by someone with a vendetta against her father—until one of her employees at her restaurant turns up dead. Suddenly, she can't trust anyone. Especially not her new bartender, a man with an instinct for trouble . . . and a body made for sin.

Katelyn has no idea that Thorne Hudson is being paid to protect her. He certainly never meant to seduce her. Crossing professional lines never ends well, especially when the slightest distraction could put both their lives at risk. But even Thorne's military resolve, honed by years of training, is no match for Katelyn's undeniable sex appeal. And after one taste of her lush lips pushes him past the edge of temptation, Thorne aches to tell her the truth—just as soon as he knows she's safe from harm.
