Have you ever seen a mosaic up close? While one piece of glass laid within a mosaic may be independently beautiful, it is stunning to see how that same broken piece can become part of a composition to form something magnificent. Isn’t it interesting how a mosaic is so much like us ... broken pieces but part of a beautiful God story. God, the master artist, has perfectly positioned each one of us to shine for His glory. But what does that look like? What does it mean to embrace your God-color? And how does that pursuit lead to discovering life purpose? Steeped in story-telling, biblical application, and thought-provoking questions, Mosaic leads teen girls through the journey of discovering their life purpose as they unpack their God-given wiring, explore their spiritual gifting, redefine love, and consider the matter of suffering. Mosaic sets the stage for an encounter with God and casts a God-color vision for your future.
